St. James's, June 9.

THE following Anſwer of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, has been tranſmitted to the Earl of Bute, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and by him preſented to the King.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to this firſt General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, which hath had the Happineſs to meet ſince the Beginning of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, we received with the greateſt Joy, and do acknowledge with the utmoſt Gratitude.

Your Majeſty's being pleaſed, in ſo gracious a Manner, to take this firſt Opportunity of aſſuring us of your fix'd Purpoſe and Reſolution to ſupport the Church of Scotland in the full Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges, as by Law eſtabliſhed, is a moſt endearing Teſtimony of your Royal Favour to us, which we humbly accept of with the greateſt Thankfulneſs, and rely upon with the firmeſt Confidence, as eſteeming your Majeſty's Royal Protection to be, under God, our greateſt Security. Your Majeſty does us the greateſt Honour, when you are pleaſed to expreſs the moſt perfect Confidence in our Loyalty and Affection to your Perſon and Government, and in our Zeal for the Encouragement of Virtue and Piety; and it ſhall be our conſtant Care, through Divine Aſſiſtance, ſo to acquit ourſelves upon every Occaſion, as that your Majeſty may never have Reaſon to entertain a leſs favourable Opinion of this Church. Theſe Sentiments are deeply rooted in our Hearts, and we ſhall moſt chearfully embrace every Opportunity of expreſſing them.

Your Majeſty's countenancing our preſent Meeting with your Royal Authority, we take as a great Bleſſing from God, and a moſt engaging Evidence of your Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs. To promote the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign, and the true Intereſts of this Church, are great and deſirable Ends, which we are bound always to have in View: And we ſhould be moſt unworthy of your Majeſty's Favour, and of the Character we bear, if we had not the beſt Diſpoſition to contribute to them all in our Power.

The Mention your Majeſty is pleaſed to make of the many and repeated Proofs, which our former General Aſſemblies have given of their Wiſdom, Prudence, and Temper, ſhews us your Majeſty's kind Inclination to approve what hath been done by others before us according to their Duty, and is a great Incitement to us to follow the good Example of thoſe with whom your Majeſty hath the Goodneſs to expreſs yourſelf ſo well ſatisfied. We are ſenſible how much Diſputes and Contentions among ourſelves would give Advantage to thoſe who are Enemies to the Peace and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Government, upon which, our own Welfare, under God, does depend: And we humbly acknowledge your Majeſty's Fatherly Tenderneſs for us, in being pleaſed to caution us againſt them, and in recommending to us the giving our whole Attention to the Means of advancing True Religion, and the Service of Almighty God. We pray and hope, that the good Spirit of God, who is the Spirit of Love and Peace, will aſſiſt us to diſpatch all our Buſineſs with that Unanimity, Brotherly Love, and Charity, which becomes the Servants of the Prince of Peace, and which is ſo neceſſary to the bringing of our Meeting, at this Time, to a happy Concluſion.

We cannot but thankfully acknowledge your Majeſty's Royal Wiſdom and watchful Care, in calling upon us to prevent, as much as poſſible, the Growth of Popery, and the Suppreſſing of Vice and Immorality to the outmoſt of our Power, and the Aſſurance your Majeſty gives us of your ready Concurrence in whatever may tend to the Attainment of ſo deſirable Ends, is at once the greateſt Encouragement and Obligation for us to exert ourſelves in the moſt vigorous Manner for accompliſhing them.

The preſent undiſturbed Tranquility and Freedom we enjoy in Common with the reſt of your Majeſty's good Subjects, excite in us the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure; and it ſhall always be our principal Care to make the People, uncer our Charge, deeply ſenſible of the many great and invaluable Bleſſings they now enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe Government and Adminiſtration; and to infuſe into them thoſe Principles of Piety and Loyalty, on which the Security of their own moſt invaluable Intereſts entirely depend.

To this we are greatly animated by your Royal Proclamation in the Beginning of your Reign, and in a ſpecial Manner by your Princely Donation to this General Aſſembly, for promoting the Knowledge and Practice of Religion in the Highlands and Iſlands, and Places where Popery and Ignorance prevails. For this we beg Leave to return your Majeſty our moſt humble and grateful Acknowledgements, and earneſtly pray, that God may abundantly reward you for ſo great a Charity: And we ſhall take the moſt effectual Care faithfully to apply it to the pious Purpoſes for which it is granted by your Majeſty.

Lord Cathcart hath given ſuch eminent Proofs of his Loyalty, Integrity and Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, and of his Abilities, on many former Occaſions, for the Diſcharge of this important Truſt, which your Majeſty has repoſed in him, and of his moſt affectionate Concern for the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Church, as render your Majeſty's Choice of him, to repreſent your Royal Perſon in this Aſſembly, moſt acceptable and obliging to us; and we humbly acknowledge it as a particular Evidence of your Majeſty's Goodneſs.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt may long preſerve your Majeſty to be a Bleſſing to theſe Lands, the Guardian of our Liberties, Civil and Sacred, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt; That He may bleſs your Majeſty's Arms in the juſt and neceſſary War in which you are now engaged, for vindicating the Honour of your Crown, and redreſſing the Injuries done to your Subjects; and that He may proſper all your Majeſty's Endeavours for reſtoring the Peace, and preſerving the Liberties of Europe; That He may bleſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, and all the Branches of your Royal Family; That there may never be wanting one of your moſt Illuſtrious Houſe to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to lateſt Ages; and, That after a long and happy Reign, over a free and dutiful People, you you may exchange an Earthly for a Heavenly Crown, are and ſhall be the ſincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, has been tranſmitted to the Earl of Bute, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, as we heartily approve the Conduct of the Commiſſion of the late Aſſembly, in congratulating your Majeſty's auſpicious Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors; ſo we embrace with Pleaſure, this firſt Opportunity which our Meeting together in a National Aſſembly affords us, of expreſſing our own Joy on Account of an Event ſo happy for Great Britain.

The many Bleſſings which we had enjoyed, during ſo long a Tract of Time, under the mild and paternal Government of your Royal Grandfather, gave us the higheſt Reaſon to join in that deep and univerſal Sorrow, which filled the Nation on His Death. The Memory of ſo Juſt and Gracious a Sovereign, whoſe Counſels and Arms were ſo remarkably bleſſed by the Almighty, as it muſt long remain ingraved on our Hearts, cannot fail to endear to us the more, every Deſcendant of His Illuſtrious Family.

With moſt lively Gratitude to Heaven, we now behold your Majeſty raiſed, in the Prime of Life, to the Throne of theſe Realms; and, under your happy Adminiſtration, we have the greateſt Reaſon to promiſe ourſelves the Continuance and Increaſe of all publick Felicity. Trained up from your earlieſt Youth to every Princely Virtue; conſpicuous for a Steadineſs and Greatneſs of Mind ſuperior to the Snares of Royalty; endowed with a Heart and Affections truly Britiſh, and formed to know, and to love, that Conſtitution, of which you are the Guardian; diſtinguiſhed, in particular, for that ſincere Regard to Religion, which adds ſo much Luſtre to your exalted Character: Your Majeſty became, from the Moment of your Acceſſion to the Crown, the Object of the higheſt Hopes to all your Subjects. Every Step of your Adminiſtration, ſince that Time, has confirmed and enlarged theſe Hopes.

Nor can we omit to join in the general Admiration and Applauſe due to that Virtue, which diſpoſed your Majeſty to relinquiſh Power and Revenues, which, though moſt ſafely lodged in Hands ſo pure as your's, might have been employed, in ſome future Period, to the Prejudice of that Liberty which you love and cheriſh. With Hearts full of Affection, we repoſe an entire Confidence in your Majeſty, as the great Defender of our Faith and Liberties, and, in particular, as the Protector of the Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland, which you have given us the moſt gracious Aſſurances of your Intention to maintain.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that amongſt all your Subjects, none are more diſtinguiſhed for their Fidelity and Loyalty to your Perſon and Government, than the Members of the Church of Scotland. A Church, which dates the Æra of its ſecure Eſtabliſhment, from that happy Period of the Revolution, which introduced your Royal Houſe to the Throne of Great Britain, muſt have the ſtrongeſt Motive to a moſt ſincere and faithful Attachment to your Majeſty. Animated, as we are, with the deepeſt Senſe of the ineſtimable Happineſs we derive from our Sacred and Civil Conſtitution, it ever has been, it ever ſhall be our zealous Endeavour to inſpire with like Sentiments, all who are within our Influence, or under our Care. The Bleſſings of a wiſe and merciful Government, now ſo univerſally felt in every Part of your Dominions, give us the beſt Reaſon to hope, that your Majeſty will reign in the Hearts, and may command the united Strength of all your People.

That the Great God of Heaven, by whom Kings reign, may crown all your Undertakings with Succeſs; That He may inſpire you with the Spirit both of Counſel and of Might; That He may ſcatter all your Foes; and, That after having long made you the Inſtrument of bleſſing a free and happy People, He may raiſe you to an High Place in His Glory Above, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders, met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

May 27, 1761.

The two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Humble Addreſs of the Governour, Council, and Aſſembly of Barbados.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects in the Iſland of Barbados, the Governor, the Members of your Majeſty's Council, and the Repreſentatives of the People, humbly preſume to crave your Majeſty's moſt gracious Attention to the united and unfeigned Sentiments of our Hearts.

Penetrated with a juſt and lively Senſe of the melancholy Event, we beg leave to condole your Majeſty on the Deceaſe of our late dread Sovereign your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather.

The Monarch thus departing to a better Life, full of Days, and crowned with Glory, is not indeed to be lamented: But we cannot but deeply regret the Prince diſtinguiſhed for Virtues, which become the Throne. Virtues, which give a Luſtre to Dignity, and diffuſe, throughout the moſt extenſive Dominion, the Means of Tranquillity and Happineſs.

But while we mourn our Misfortune, we will remember the Remoteneſs of our Situation. We will rather reſtrain the Emotions of our own Grief, than renew your Majeſty's pious Sorrows.

Permit us then, moſt gracious Sovereign, to turn our Eyes to the fair Proſpects that are opening before us. We joyfully congratulate your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown. May the Days of your Reign be many; and may every Day be marked with Felicity and glory! Nor is a generous Mind leſs happy in ſucceeding to the Love and Affections of an united People, than to the ſplendid Rights of great Progenitors.

That the Counſels which were planned with the Wiſdom and Experience of Age, will be carried into Execution with the Vigour and Vivacity of Youth, our Enemies will do your Majeſty the Juſtice to believe. The declared Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Purpoſes will augment the Impreſſion.

But what Bounds can be ſet to the Hopes and Expectations of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects! They know the perſonal Abilities of their Sovereign, the Gift of Providence improved by Culture: They ſee the frequent Examples in his own illuſtrious Family exciting him to a noble emulation; and they are conſcious of the mighty Powers of a King of Great-Britain, zealouſly and unanimouſly ſupported by the Nation. A Nation that glories in being the Place of your Majeſty's Nativity, and which is charmed with the the tender and endearing Expreſſion of your Royal Affection.

In theſe Hopes and Expectations, the Inhabitants of this your Majeſty's Colony take their full Share. Diſtant as we ſeem to be placed, our Fate is nearly connected and immediately bound up with that of our Mother Country; in her Proſperity only can we flouriſh; by her Sufferings are we undone.

To your Majeſty's Goodneſs we truſt for Pardon of our forward Zeal, and will no longer detain your Royal Attention from Cares of greater Moment, than to aſſure your Majeſty of the entire Devotion and Reſpect with which we are,

Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Faithful Subjects and Servants.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governour and Council of the Province of Georgia.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governour and Council of your Majeſty's Province of Georgia, though by our Diſtance prevented the Happineſs of approaching your Sacred Perſon, yet deeply affected with the moſt unfeigned Concern, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign; whoſe Juſtice and Mercy were equal to the Luſtre of his Arms, and Dignity of his Crown. So ſenſible a Loſs could only be alleviated by your Majeſty's immediate and happy Acceſſion to the Throne; as from a Prince ſo eminently poſſeſſed of every Royal Virtue, we promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of the greateſt Bleſſings.

Permit us therefore, moſt gracious Sovereign, to mingle our very ſincere and affectionate Congratulations with thoſe of your Majeſty's other faithful Subjects, on this great and important Event: And alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Inhabitants of this Province are zealous and united in their Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government. It is their earneſt Prayer, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a grateful and happy People; that you may long continue the Arbiter of Europe, and the ſure Refuge of oppreſſed Nations; and that your People, to their lateſt Poſterity, may be ever bleſſed with a Prince of your illuſtrious Houſe, endowed with your Majeſty's moſt amiable Virtues and Accompliſhments.
